1. PURPOSE AND REVISIONS

The purpose of this handbook is to define college policy governing the terms and conditions of employment for exempt employees under general fund money contracts. Non-general fund employees may have special terms and conditions due to their funding source and/or contract period; however, this handbook will be followed as closely as possible.

A committee representing all exempt employees appointed by the Exempt Association's president shall review this handbook at least every three years. This committee shall make recommendations to the college president/chief executive officer. Any revisions, deletions, or additions must receive Chemeketa Community College Board of Education approval upon the recommendation of the college president/chief executive officer or designee.

2. DEFINITIONS OF EXEMPT EMPLOYEES

Exempt are the group of employees, defined below, that are excluded from collective bargaining by provisions of the collective bargaining law, Oregon Employment Relations Board rulings, or college recognition. The terms and conditions for the college president are governed by a contract between the board and president, not this handbook. The following are classifications of exempt employees:

Administrator: An annually contracted employee designated by the college as one who performs executive duties, prepares and administers budgets, and/or formulates college administrative policy.

Confidential: "Confidential employee" means one who assists and acts in a confidential capacity to a person who formulates, determines, and effectuates management policies in the area of collective bargaining. (ORS 243.650)

Manager or Coordinator: "Managerial employee" means an employee who possesses authority to formulate and carry out management decisions or who represents management's interest by taking or effectively recommending discretionary actions that control or implement employer policy, and who has discretion in the performance of these management responsibilities beyond the routine discharge of duties. A "managerial employee" need not act in a supervisory capacity in relation to other employees. (ORS 243.650)

Supervisor: "Supervisory employee" means any individual having authority in the interest of the employer to hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward or discipline other employees, or responsibly to direct them, or to adjust their grievances, or effectively to recommend such action, if in connection therewith, the exercise of the authority is not of a merely routine or clerical nature but requires the use of independent judgment. (ORS 243.650)

3. JOB CLASSIFICATION AND BANDING

The college shall maintain a classification system for all exempt employees. Refer to the college Human Resources office for further information. Job classification for exempt employees ranges from B-2 to F-1.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES OF EXEMPT EMPLOYEES

The responsibility of the exempt employee shall be to effectively represent the interests of the college by providing leadership and support of the college mission and to administer college policies and procedures adopted by the college president/chief executive officer and policies approved by the College Board of Education.

5. JOB DESCRIPTIONS

The college president/chief executive officer has authority to determine the staffing requirements of the college. By authority of the president/chief executive officer, positions shall be defined, and job descriptions shall be developed setting forth duties, responsibilities, and minimum qualifications for positions. Job descriptions shall be updated as needed by the supervisor and maintained by the college Human Resources office for each college position.

6. HIRING

The recruitment and hiring of all exempt employees shall be done in accordance with the college's personnel practices and recruitment guidelines, affirmative action policy, and the Affirmative Action Plan.

7. PLACEMENT

New exempt employees shall be placed on the appropriate salary schedule in accordance with college pay practices. Initial salary placement will be made in accordance with pay equity. The current salary of a new exempt staff member transferring from a bargaining unit within the college may be considered when determining initial placement.

8. SALARY

A salary schedule shall be maintained for exempt employees. (See Appendix A). Employees working less than 1.0 FTE shall be prorated according to FTE/months worked. The college president/chief executive officer, or designee, shall require an annual review of the salary schedule for exempt employees. This review shall include an opportunity for input from representatives of the exempt employees. Recommendations for changes shall be made to the College Board of Education through the college president/chief executive officer.

During the annual review, adjustments to the salary schedule and salary step movement shall be considered.

When salary step movement is approved, increases for exempt employees on ranges B-2 through D-5 who have continued satisfactory performance, who are not at the top of their salary range, and who are offered a one (1) year contract, shall be awarded a step at the beginning of the contract year. Probationary employees hired on or before March 1 of any fiscal year (July 1– June 30) who are performing satisfactorily and receive a probationary contract are eligible for salary step increases.

Salary increases or decreases for exempt employees on ranges E-1 to F-1 who are offered a new one (1) year contract are subject to the evaluation process and shall be assigned at the beginning of the contract year.

As provided by law¹, certain exempt employees shall receive compensation, or compensatory time off, for overtime hours worked. The college will not compensate any other exempt employees for overtime.

Under special conditions, a bonus may be awarded for exemplary performance at the discretion of the Executive Team.¹

9. EMPLOYMENT STATUS

Exempt employees shall serve a minimum twelve (12) month probationary employment period. Supervisors shall evaluate the performance of the exempt employee prior to the completion of the probationary period. The supervisor may elect to extend the probationary period up to an additional six (6) months. At the end of a successful probationary period, the supervisor shall authorize the completion of a contract up to the end of the fiscal year. At any time during the probationary period, exempt employees whose performance is unsatisfactory may be terminated from employment.

Exempt employees shall be provided notice concerning their employment status not later than March 15 of each year. A notice of renewal shall include the number of months to be worked in the forthcoming fiscal year, starting date, percentage of assignment, and salary placement. A notice of non-renewal shall confirm the final date to complete the current contract.

Exempt employees who have satisfactorily completed their probationary period may obtain up to a one (1) year contract based on the fiscal year. There is no automatic renewal of one (1) year contracts.

College notice of renewal shall be considered accepted by the exempt employee unless on or before April 1, the exempt employee notifies the college Human Resources office in writing, rejecting the terms of the notice. Some exempt employees will be required to sign their notices by April 1 for certain special circumstances.

Employment as an exempt employee of the college can be terminated in the following manner:

- (A) An exempt probationary employee may be terminated at any time for any reason deemed by the college to be sufficient.
- (B) A confidential employee may be reclassified as a classified employee whenever appropriate as determined by statute and the college, or may complete the contract and not be renewed for any reason, or may be terminated in mid-contract for just cause (see Section 14), or may be retrenched as needed (see Section 15).
- (C) Any other exempt employee may complete the contract and not be renewed for any reason, or may be terminated in mid-contract for just cause (see Section 14), or may be retrenched as needed (see Section 15).

10. EVALUATION

The evaluation of an exempt employee's performance may serve several purposes. The evaluation may be used as:

- (1) motivation to improve an employee's performance and as a basis for salary increases;
- (2) a source of information for concern about work performance;
- (3) a source of documentation to support disciplinary actions, including employee termination;
- (4) a basis for determining individual and organizational needs;
- (5) an aid in preparing a work plan to strengthen employee qualifications and/or performance;
- (6) an aid in setting specific work objectives;
- (7) a basis for identifying an employee who deserves promotion; and
- (8) continuing documentation of an employee's work history.

Performance appraisal shall be based on the employee's job description, specifications, and activities related to the individual's professional goals and objectives. Optionally, the employee may request that items beyond the supervisor's observation be considered in the performance appraisal. Those items might include self-evaluation, subordinate evaluation, peer evaluation, advisory group and consideration of special assignments or projects, etc., if such items have been agreed upon as a part of the evaluation.

An annual written evaluation shall contain recommendations regarding salary placement, retention, promotion, termination, or benefits such as professional renewal leave. If the employee has worked for at least six (6) months, the evaluation shall be completed on the approved evaluation forms by September 1. Additional evaluations on any form consistent with the above purposes may be completed whenever the supervisor determines it is appropriate.

11. CLASSIFICATION, RECLASSIFICATIONS AND APPEALS

Exempt employees may request a review of their job descriptions for the purposes of consideration for reclassification or the clarification of performance expectations. Requests are submitted in writing through an employee's immediate supervisor to the appropriate department and/or division administrator. All position reclassifications require the approval of Executive Team.

All requests will be forwarded to the college Human Resources office with the immediate supervisor's written recommendation for approval or disapproval within fifteen (15) working days. The college Human Resources staff shall review the employee's request and the immediate supervisor's recommendation and make a written determination within thirty-five (35) working days. If the college Human Resources office determines that a reclassification is justified, they will inform the immediate supervisor of the decision. The immediate supervisor will forward the justification to the appropriate executive dean or vice president for review and approval or disapproval by Executive Team. If the employee does not agree with the findings of the college Human Resources office, the Executive Team shall make a final determination within an additional ten (10) working days.

The implementation date for a classification change shall be the date that the new job description, properly signed by all authorizing parties, is submitted to the college Human Resources office for review. Those individuals receiving an upward classification change will be placed at the new range and step representing the dollar value at least 3.5 percent greater than the individual's current salary or as determined by pay equity. Those individuals whose positions are reclassified downward will be placed on the new range based on pay equity.

12. ORGANIZATIONAL MOBILITY

Exempt employees may apply for any college recruited position and will be considered on the basis of qualifications.

13. PROCEDURAL DUE PROCESS

Regular non-probationary exempt employees shall be afforded due process in any action to demote, retrench, or terminate them from employment with the college. Due process procedures shall be defined as an employee receiving (1) advance notice of the reasons for the action, (2) an opportunity to respond to a college official with the authority to effectively recommend action, and (3) an opportunity to for an appeal in front of the decision maker or designee after a decision has been made.

14. TERMINATION

Termination is defined as a dismissal in mid-contract.

Exempt employees in probationary status may be terminated at any time (see Section 9) for any reason deemed by the college to be sufficient.

An exempt employee in regular status may be terminated during the term of their contract for just cause. If the employee disagrees with the action, the exempt employee shall use the complaint procedure (Section 33) to appeal the termination with the appropriate executive dean or vice president, and the college president/chief executive officer. In cases where the college president/chief executive officer is the immediate supervisor, the exempt employee may appeal the termination to the College Board of Education. If the appeal is reviewed by the College Board of Education, the exempt employee has the right to determine whether the board session is in open or executive session. The decision of the College Board of Education shall be final.

15. RETRENCHMENT

If a position is eliminated in mid-contract due to reorganization, maximum notice (but not less than 90 calendar days) shall be given each employee affected. If a position is eliminated due to financial exigency, the college shall provide the employee a 30-working day written notice before the end of service. In the event of an exempt employee's retrenchment due to reorganization or financial exigency, the employee shall have the opportunity to apply for any job openings that may occur. Reassignment of an exempt employee shall be subject to the applicable provisions of current faculty and classified collective bargaining agreements.

16. RECALL RIGHTS

Retrenched employees will be allowed to apply for all internally recruited positions for a period of up to two (2) years. Qualifications for these positions shall be no more than what would normally be required of new hires. Affected employees may notify the college Human Resources office of any change in their present address or availability.

Nothing in this handbook shall prevent the college from offering an employee another position at the college provided he/she possesses the qualifications, aptitude and ability to perform the work available.

17. OFFICIAL PERSONNEL FILES

The college shall maintain for college use official personnel files in the college Human Resources office for each employee. These shall be the official personnel files maintained for each employee for purposes of retention, promotion, or discipline. These files shall contain copies of evaluations, commendations, letters, or other materials deemed appropriate by the college. All entries must be dated and signed by the submitting party.

Any materials placed in these personnel files shall be placed there within a period of time not to exceed forty-five (45) working days of the date the action was taken. The employee shall be notified of the placement of new material in the personnel files within ten (10) working days of its placement and shall be allowed an opportunity to respond to that material. At the employee's request any written response from the employee shall also be placed in the personnel files, provided that the response is received by the college Human Resources office within ten (10) working days following the date of employee notification.

Employees' personnel records shall not be made available to any individual or organization, except for college officials with a bona fide need to know or court order, without a signed authorization statement from the affected employee. Materials that are obtained confidentially by the college during the hiring process shall not be made a part of the personnel files. Materials may be expunged from the files by mutual consent of the college president/chief executive officer and the employee. Employees shall have reasonable opportunities to inspect their personnel files. Other working files are maintained as needed.

18. COPYRIGHTS—PATENTS

The ownership of any materials, processes, or inventions developed solely by an employee's effort and expense shall vest in the employee and be copyrighted or patented, if at all, in the employee's name.

The ownership of any materials, processes, or inventions produced solely for the college and at college expense shall vest in the college and be copyrighted or patented, if at all, in its name.

In those instances where materials, processes, or inventions are produced by an employee with college support, by way of the use of significant personnel time, facilities or other college resources, the ownership of the materials, processes, or invention shall vest in the person(s) designated by written agreement between the parties entered into prior to the production. The employee on political leave shall be provided written notification of the retrenchment decision.

31. PROFESSIONAL RENEWAL LEAVE

Exempt employees who have completed three (3) years of continuous service with the college are eligible for professional renewal leave. Application for leave shall be prepared by the exempt employee requesting leave and be submitted to the immediate supervisor no later than six (6) months preceding the date the leave is to begin. 33. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

It is the purpose of this procedure to provide an effective and acceptable means for employees to bring problems and complaints concerning the terms and conditions of their employment to the attention of the college in an attempt to resolve them.

When an exempt employee believes a condition, not already covered in College Policy, affecting them is unjust, inequitable, or a hindrance to effective operation, the employee will immediately discuss the situation with their supervisor.

If the employee believes the complaint has not resolved informally, then within ten (10) working days, it shall be expressed in writing to the supervisor with a formal request to initiate this complaint procedure. The written complaint shall give a clear and concise statement of the complaint including the facts upon which the complaint is based, the issues involved, and resolution sought.

A written reply shall be given to the employee within ten (10) working days of the employee's written complaint.

If the employee believes that the answer given by the supervisor did not resolve the concern or problem, the employee may submit a written complaint to the appropriate executive dean or vice president within ten (10) working days of the supervisor's response, with copies directed to the supervisor and the Associate Vice President of Human Resources.

The appropriate executive dean or vice president shall meet with the employee and with the supervisor to discuss the complaint. The executive dean or vice president may wish to meet with both the employee and the supervisor simultaneously. In any event, the executive dean or vice president shall reply in writing to the employee and the supervisor not later than ten (10) working days after the last meeting.

Should the employee believe that the reply from the division administrator does not remedy the complaint, the employee may direct an appeal to the college president/chief executive officer. The appeal shall be submitted in writing to the president/chief executive officer with a copy to the Associate Vice President of Human Resources within ten (10) working days after the reply is received from the division administrator.

The president/chief executive officer or designee shall conduct interviews as deemed appropriate and shall submit a written decision to the employee, their legal representative, executive dean or vice president and supervisor not later than ten (10) working days after the last meeting/interview. The president/chief executive officer's decision shall be final except as allowed under Section 14.

Failure at any step of the procedure to communicate the decision in writing within the specified timelines shall permit the employee to proceed to the next step. Failure at any step of this procedure to appeal a complaint to the next step within the specified timeline shall be deemed to be acceptance of the decision rendered at that step.

APPENDIX B EXEMPT EMPLOYEE INSURANCE BENEFITS

- Medical, Dental and Vision Insurance for employee and immediate family* (spouse, domestic partner, children, or legal dependents under age 26). Effective September 1, 2022, the college will pay a maximum of $1,628.85 per month, as well as up to $80.00 of premium relief for combined medical insurance. This will be increased by 3 percent on September 1, 2023. In the event the college and faculty or classified employees negotiate an adjustment in fringe benefits (insurance benefits), exempt employees may be subject to the same adjustment.
 - * The college will provide coverage for only one spouse (partner) if both parties are employed by the college. Employees with a spouse (partner) with college coverage will decide which employee will carry coverage or the college will choose. The college will pay a $100 per month stipend to employees who are required to waive dual coverage because both spouses/domestic partners are employed by the college. Only the spouse waiving coverage will receive the stipend.
- Group Life Insurance for employee in the amount of $200,000. [Note: Any insured value over $TBD is taxable.] Upon written request and a signed waiver form, the portion of insurance above $50,000 in value may be waived by the employee.
- Group Term Life Insurance for employee's spouse, domestic partner, and dependent children.
- Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance for employee only.
- Long Term Disability Insurance (LTD) for the employee, first ninety (90) calendar days of disability excluded. Employees on LTD leave shall retain all benefits for only the thirteen (13) months of absence from work. Life insurance benefits shall continue at the same level as regular employees for as long as disability payments continue (subject to the waiver of insurance premiums by the life insurance carrier). Mandatory employee paid deductions will be made to pay the premium for this coverage.
- Short Term Disability—optional employee paid deduction.
- Upon early retirement, arrangements may be made for eligible exempt employees to pay the costs of group insurance benefits until age 65 or eligibility for Medicare, whichever occurs first, as allowed by Oregon Educators Benefit Board.
- Insurance benefits for employees working less than 1.0 FTE shall be prorated based on FTE.
